Reminders:

All readings are in the Lector workbook and each reader should be familiar enough with both readings to read either one or both.

The first person listed would generally read the first reading, however, if you and your partner would like to change; go ahead.

During the procession, please do not rush. Both lectors should move to the left of the presider and bow as he does before returning to your seat.

It is your responsibility to find a replacement if you can not make an assignment. I would be happy to help if you have difficulty. Trading weekends can allow you to not miss an opportunity to lector if you can't make an assignment.
